FERRYDEN ANTHEM

1. I hate to be unsociable with anyone I meet,
I like someone to chatter to when I sit down to eat,
Or even if I go by train, a mile or two away,
Then to my fellow passengers, I'm very sure to say.....

Chorus:

Don't let us be strangers, as long as we are together,
Friends we'll be if you'll agree, 'tis far a better plan,
Life is very short, so let us all endeavour,
To be as good and kind to one another as we can.

2. I'm fond of girls' society, and when those dears I see,
I always tell them for to make themselves at home with me,
And even if they're proud or shy, I'm sure to win the day,
When I look those darlings in the face, I'm very sure to say....

Chorus;

3. So now my friends take this advice, wherever you may roam,
Be courteous to your fellow man and make him feel at home,
Civility costs nothing, and you'll find it out in the end,
That by my simple message, you will always find a friend.

Chorus:
